

ABOUT CENTER FOR ALLIED HEALTH EDUCATION

In 2007, Center for Allied Health Education, a school of allied health educational programs, was created. The Center occupies 20,000 square feet of state-of-the-art educational space. The facility includes classrooms, laboratories, a computer library, a student lounge, a faculty lounge/office and a large administrative suite. The facility has laboratory equipment necessary to enhance the various educational programs including but not limited to, x-ray machines, ultrasound machines, microscopes, EMS equipment, venipuncture arms as well as CPR and First Aid equipment.

ADDRESS & CONTACT INFORMATION

Center for Allied Health Education

1401 Kings Highway

Brooklyn, NY 11229

718-645-3500

www.cahe.edu